Significant milestones, including those upon which any agreed progress payments may be contingent, are to be indicated on the Programme together with the planned dates.
- 20.5 At 14 day intervals thereafter, or as may be required by MacDow, the Supplier shall re-submit the Programme with actual progress clearly shown against each activity. The Programme shall be accompanied by a brief written report for any deviations from planned activities together with the remedial steps being taken by Supplier to restore the Programme so that the Date for Delivery will be maintained.
- 20.6 Where MacDow so directs, a brief report on production status and delivery forecast is required to be provided to MacDow weekly.
- 20.7 The Date for Delivery may be extended by such time as may in all the circumstances be fair and reasonable if work on the Goods is delayed in the following events:
- a) by any wrongful or negligent act of default, or delay, or breach of this Agreement, by MacDow, its servant or agents ;
 - b) suspension of performance of the Agreement by MacDow pursuant to Clause 27; or

- c) by force majeure in accordance with Clause 29.

and the Date for Delivery is unable to be achieved as a result.

- 20.8 As a condition precedent to such extension of the Date for Delivery, the Supplier shall as soon as such delay becomes apparent, forthwith give written notice of the cause and likely duration of delay to MacDow and provided also that the Supplier shall constantly use its best endeavours to prevent delay and shall do all that may reasonably be required by MacDow to proceed with the Goods. Provided that, absent notice from the Supplier, MacDow may at its sole discretion and in its own interests, grant such extensions of time as it may consider fair and reasonable
- 20.9 If the Goods are to be delivered by instalments, the Agreement will be treated as a single Agreement and not severable.
- 20.10 The Supplier shall supply MacDow in good time with information required to enable MacDow to accept delivery of the Goods and performance of any work on the Site.
- 20.11 MacDow may at any time, by written notice which is expressly identified as an acceleration direction, direct the Supplier to accelerate the execution of the work. Unless the acceleration is necessitated by the failure of the Supplier to proceed with the work in a diligent and competent manner or otherwise cause progress of the work to be delayed (in which case the cost of such acceleration shall be to the Supplier's account), MacDow shall pay the Supplier its direct reasonable costs (if any), directly attributable to the acceleration.
- 20.12 Notwithstanding any other provision of the Agreement, and as a fundamental condition hereof, at any time, and whether or not MacDow has terminated the Agreement, MacDow may in writing direct the Supplier to immediately release, and make available to MacDow, any of the Goods (whether completed or not), and do all things necessary to enable MacDow to remove such Goods from the Supplier's (and Sub-supplier's) places of work. The Supplier hereby grants to MacDow an irrevocable licence to enter upon the property of the Supplier to give effect to this provision, and shall do all that is necessary to retrieve any Goods from its Sub-suppliers. The Supplier shall promptly thereafter, submit to MacDow a claim for payment in respect only to the Goods removed by MacDow, which claim shall be regarded as a claim made under Clause 8.1, and which shall be valued as though only that part of the work had been terminated pursuant to Clause 28. Property in the Goods shall be deemed to reside in MacDow upon the direction being given to the Supplier to release the Goods. Any Goods not included in MacDow's direction, shall continue to be subject to the Agreement. Any failure of the Supplier to comply with this Clause 20.12 shall be a fundamental breach of the Agreement, and in the event that MacDow makes application to a court to enforce its rights under this Clause 20.12, this Clause is agreed by the Supplier to constitute a complete bar and defence to any application, defence or counter claim that the Supplier may raise at such, or related, proceedings in challenge of such rights of MacDow. This Clause 20.12 shall survive the termination of the Agreement.

21 Acceptance of Work

- 21.1 MacDow shall be entitled to reject any Goods delivered which are not in accordance with the Agreement, and shall not be deemed to have accepted any Goods until MacDow has had a reasonable time to inspect them following delivery or, if later, within a reasonable time after any latent defect in the Goods has become apparent.

- 21.2 MacDow shall not be obliged to return to the Supplier any packaging or packing materials for the Goods, whether or not any Goods are accepted by MacDow.

22 Goods Warranty

22.1 Save where otherwise expressly stated in the Agreement, the Supplier warrants to MacDow that all Goods will:

- a) be the best of their described kinds;
- b) be in exact conformity with any Specifications, Vendor Data, sample or other agreed description;
- c) be new, fit and free from defects in design, material and workmanship;
- d) be of merchantable quality and fit for any purpose held out by Supplier or made known to Supplier in the Agreement, or which would be reasonably expected, including that they will function and operate satisfactorily in the environmental and climatic conditions to which they are to be exposed, (including altitude, and operational conditions such as exposure to dust, atmospheric corrosion, corrosive chemicals and fluids and rough handling); and
- e) will comply with all statutory requirements and regulations of the countries in which the Goods are to be manufactured, installed executed, packaged, packed, delivered, sold, used or operated.

22.2 The Supplier warrants to MacDow that the Goods will be manufactured, and where relevant, installed, by appropriately qualified and trained personnel, with due care, skill and diligence and to the highest standard of quality.

22.3 Without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to MacDow, if any Goods are not supplied or performed in accordance with the Agreement, or a defect appears in the Goods (whether or not as a result of a breach of warranty under Clauses 22.1 and 22.2 or any other undertaking or condition or otherwise), then MacDow shall be entitled:

- a) to require the Supplier to repair or replace the defective Goods within seven (7) days; or
- b) at MacDow's sole option, and whether or not MacDow has previously required the Supplier to repair or replace the Goods or Works;
 - (i) to accept the defective Goods, and be entitled to recover from the Supplier, the greater of all damages, losses, costs and expenses suffered or incurred by MacDow, as a result of such defective Goods, or the benefit to the Supplier (including any Sub-supplier) of not having to rectify the defective Goods, or
 - (ii) where the Supplier fails to repair or replace the defective Goods as required by paragraph (a) above, to treat the Agreement as repudiated by the Supplier's breach and to accept such repudiation or to terminate the Agreement for the Supplier's breach, and require the repayment of any part of the Price which has been paid, and compensation for all damages, losses, costs and expenses suffered or incurred by MacDow.

22.4 The Supplier shall be liable for all damages loss, costs and expense incurred or suffered by MacDow, and shall indemnify MacDow against all liabilities, damages, costs and other compensation awarded against or paid by MacDow, in connection with any third party claims arising out of or as a result of or in connection with breach of any warranty given by the Supplier in relation to the Goods or any non-compliance with the Agreement, and all legal or other expenses incurred by MacDow in or about the defence or settlement of any such claims.

22.5 Repairs and replacements shall themselves be subject to the same warranties as contained in Clauses 22.1 and 22.2.

22.6 All express warranties of the Supplier set forth in the Agreement are additional to any warranties or conditions implied by statute or common law.

22.7 It is expressly agreed by the Supplier that the warranties given to MacDow by this Clause 22, together with any further warranties that may be provided to MacDow by the Supplier, shall simultaneously be for the benefit of the Client, who may call upon the Supplier to honour such warranties, whether or not this Agreement has been assigned or novated to the Client pursuant to Clause 30.

23 Confidentiality

23.1 In this Clause, "Confidential Information" shall mean that information:

- a) disclosed to or obtained by the Supplier at any time prior to the signing of the Agreement by the Supplier or in connection with or during the course of performance of the Agreement and which relates to MacDow's past, present or future business and activities, or those of the Client; and
- b) all items prepared for or submitted to MacDow for the purposes of performance of the Agreement, including any Vendor Data or other Specification, drafts and associated materials and works carried out under the Agreement.

But shall not apply to Confidential Information that:

- (i) is or becomes publicly available without breach of the Agreement or other legal obligations by the Supplier; or
- (ii) is released for disclosure with the prior written consent of MacDow.

23.2 The Supplier undertakes not to divulge or communicate to any person, firm or company any Confidential Information without the prior written consent of MacDow except to employees, agents or Sub-suppliers who are engaged in the performance of the Agreement and (if requested by MacDow) have signed a Confidential Undertaking having the same effect as the provisions contained in this Clause, and then only to the extent necessary for the performance of the Agreement.

23.3 The Supplier shall take all reasonable precautions in dealing with any Confidential Information so as to prevent any unauthorised person from having access to such Confidential Information.

23.4 If so required by MacDow, the Supplier shall simultaneously with delivery of the Goods or handing over of the Works, at its own expense, deliver up to MacDow all documents, papers and property containing any Confidential Information which may be in the possession or under the control of the Supplier, its employees, agents or Sub-suppliers.

- 23.5 The Supplier shall not disclose the existence of the Agreement or mention MacDow's name or that of the Client, in any publicity release or announcement or publicity material or other similar communication without MacDow's prior written consent.
- 23.6 The provisions of this Clause shall survive the termination or expiry of this Agreement for any reason.

24 Infringement of Intellectual Property Rights

- 24.1 The Supplier shall be liable for all damages loss, costs and expense incurred or suffered by MacDow, and shall indemnify MacDow against all liabilities, damages, costs and other compensation awarded against or paid by MacDow, in connection with any infringement or alleged infringement arising from or occasioned by or in relation to the use of any Intellectual Property Rights in any Goods by MacDow pursuant to the Agreement, and all legal or other expenses incurred by MacDow in or about the defence or settlement of any infringement claim.

25 Indemnity

- 25.1 The Supplier hereby indemnifies and saves harmless MacDow from and against all liabilities, loss, damages, costs and expenses (including legal expenses on an indemnity basis) awarded against or paid or suffered or incurred by MacDow arising out of or as a result of or in connection with any breach of duty or negligence, or any act or omission, of the Supplier, its employees, agents or Sub-suppliers in connection with the performance of the Agreement.

26 Termination for Convenience

- 26.1 MacDow shall be entitled, at any time prior to delivery of the Goods, to cancel the Agreement in respect of all or any part of the Goods by giving notice in writing to the Supplier. Upon receipt of such notice, the Supplier shall immediately cease to incur expenses in respect of the Agreement or the part thereof which has been cancelled.
- 26.2 The Supplier shall take all steps to mitigate costs to MacDow of such cancellation, and the provisions of Clause 20.12 shall, mutatis mutandis, apply. Upon such cancellation, MacDow's sole liability shall be to pay to the Supplier (after allowing for any previous payment):
- the value of the Goods delivered to MacDow at the Delivery Point;
 - where there is no ready market for the Goods, the value of any Goods manufactured but not delivered at the date of such determination; and
 - where there is no ready market for the unfixed goods or materials for incorporation in the Goods, the value of any unfixed goods and materials (wherever located) properly ordered for which the Supplier shall have paid or of which it is legally bound to accept delivery.
- 26.3 On payment by MacDow for any Goods, the property in such Goods so paid, if not already passed to MacDow, shall pass to MacDow.

- 26.4 Where there is a ready market for any Goods, the Supplier shall not be entitled to any payment therefore, save for its reasonable costs of handling and any bona-fide short-fall in recovering its reasonable costs of the Goods, whether or not property has passed to MacDow. If property has passed to MacDow, property shall re-vest in the Supplier and (if the Goods, are in the possession or custody of MacDow) MacDow shall re-deliver the same to the Supplier at MacDow's premises.
- 26.5 The Supplier shall not be entitled to any payment for any Goods, under Clause 26.2 unless they are in all respects in accordance with the Agreement. The Supplier shall not be entitled to any loss of profit on the remaining parts of the Goods or any other compensation.

27 Suspension

- 27.1 MacDow shall be entitled at any time to suspend performance of the Agreement in respect of all or any part of the Goods by giving notice in writing to the Supplier. Upon receipt of such notice, the Supplier shall immediately cease to incur expenses in respect of the Agreement or the part thereof the performance of which has been suspended. The Supplier shall take all steps to mitigate costs to MacDow of such suspension.
- 27.2 The Supplier shall immediately resume performance of the Agreement upon notice in writing from MacDow to the Supplier to do so.
- 27.3 Save that the Date for Delivery may be extended and re-calculated by such further period and until such further date as may be reasonable to reflect any delay in Completion (an extension of time) which, notwithstanding due diligence and the taking of all reasonable steps by the Supplier to avoid or reduce the same, has been caused by any suspension by MacDow under Clause 27.1. The Supplier shall not be entitled to any additional payment or any adjustment to the Price arising from any such suspension, unless such suspension was caused by the negligent or wilful conduct of MacDow, in which case the Supplier shall be entitled to be reimbursed its reasonable costs directly attributable to the suspension. Provided always that the Supplier shall not be entitled to any extension of time, or the payment of any costs, if the suspension was due to any act or omission of the Supplier, its servants or agents or Sub-suppliers, but shall be entitled to an extension of time where the suspension is caused otherwise.
- 27.4 It shall be a condition precedent to an extension of time under this Clause that Supplier shall within 14 days of date of receipt of notice to resume performance, notify MacDow in writing of any claim for extension of time and/or costs, together with a full statement of the reasons to justify such claim; any claims made otherwise are barred.

28 Termination for Default

- 28.1 MacDow shall be entitled to terminate the Agreement forthwith by giving notice to the Supplier at any time if:
- the Supplier ceases, or threatens to cease, to carry on business, becomes bankrupt or makes a composition or arrangement with its creditors or having a proposal in respect of its company for a voluntary arrangement for having a composition of debts or scheme or arrangement approved by, or having an application made in respect of its company to, the court for the appointment of an administrator, or having a winding up order made (except for the purposes of amalgamation or reconstruction) or a resolution for voluntary winding up passed or having a provisional liquidator, receiver or manager of its business or undertaking duly appointed, or having an administrative receiver appointed, or having possession taken, by or on behalf of the holders of any debentures secured by a floating charge of any property comprised in or subject to the floating charge, or MacDow reasonably apprehends that any of the events mentioned above is about to occur in relation to the Supplier and notifies the Supplier accordingly (in any of the events aforesaid, the Supplier shall be deemed to be in breach of Agreement); or

- b) the Supplier commits a breach of any of its obligations under the Agreement.

In the case of a default referred to in Clause 28.1(b), other than a default in respect to on-Site safety, in which case MacDow may terminate the Agreement without notice, MacDow shall not be entitled to terminate the Agreement, unless it has served on the Supplier a notice advising of the breach, and allowing the Supplier not less than seven days in which to remedy the breach or otherwise show good cause why MacDow should not terminate the Agreement, and the Supplier fails to do so.

- 28.2 Upon termination for breach, the Supplier shall be liable for all damages, loss, costs and expense which may be suffered or incurred by MacDow arising out of such determination and shall indemnify MacDow against all liabilities, damages, costs and other compensation awarded against or paid by MacDow in connection with any third party claims and all legal expenses and costs incurred by MacDow in the defence or settlement of any such claims, arising out of, or as a result of, or in connection with, such termination. MacDow's only liability to the Supplier, subject to MacDow's right of set-off, shall be to make payment of (or allow as credit) the Price of all Goods delivered or handed over to MacDow in accordance with the Agreement.

29 Force Majeure

- 29.1 If either party to the Agreement is prevented or delayed in the performance of any of its obligations under the Agreement by force majeure, and provided that such party has given written notice thereof to the other party specifying the matters constituting force majeure, together with such evidence as it reasonably can give and specifying the period for which it is estimated that such prevention or delay will continue, then such party shall be excused from the performance or the punctual performance as the case may be as from the date of such notice for so long as such cause of prevention or delay shall continue.
- 29.2 For the purpose of Clause 29.1, "force majeure" shall be deemed to be any cause affecting the performance of the Agreement arising from or attributable to causes which are not reasonably foreseeable and beyond the reasonable control of the party affected and without limiting the generality thereof shall include the following:
- a) strikes, lock-outs or other industrial actions (excluding strikes by Supplier's employees);
 - b) civil commotion, riot, invasion, war threat or preparation for war;
 - c) fire, explosion, storm, flood, earthquake, subsidence, epidemic or other natural physical disaster;

- d) impossibility of the use of railways, shipping, aircraft, motor transport or other means of public or private transport; or
- e) Political interference with the normal operations of any party provided always that Supplier shall not be excused from performance hereunder where alternate sources of supply of Goods or goods or materials for incorporation into the Goods are available.

- 29.3 If the force majeure in question prevails for a continuous period in excess of one month, the parties shall enter into bona fide discussions with a view to alleviating its effects, or to agreeing upon such alternative arrangements as may be fair and reasonable provided that either party may terminate the Agreement (insofar as it is affected by the force majeure) if no such alleviation or alternative can be agreed.

30 Assignment or Subletting

- 30.1 The Supplier shall not assign or sub-let the performance of the Agreement (or any part thereof) without the prior consent in writing of MacDow. The Supplier shall at all times be responsible to MacDow for the acts or omissions of any assignee or Sub-supplier. When requested, an unpriced copy of the Supplier's contracts with an approved Sub-supplier shall be furnished to MacDow promptly after receipt of MacDow's consent.
- 30.2 The Supplier accepts that MacDow may be entering into the Agreement for and on behalf of the Client (whether or not made known to the Supplier). MacDow may freely assign or novate all its rights and obligations under the Agreement to any such Client. The Supplier hereby irrevocably consents to any such assignment or novation in the form required by such Client and to the release of MacDow upon any such assignment or novation, of all further obligations under the Agreement and agrees to execute any instrument or other document to give effect to any such assignment or novation and release.
- 30.3 MacDow may, upon written notice to the Supplier and without its consent, assign all or any part of its rights and benefits hereunder or transfer all or any part of its obligations hereunder to a related corporation, who upon receiving such an assignment or transfer will thereafter be liable solely for the performance of the obligations hereunder.

31 Approval not to relieve Supplier of liability

- 31.1 No approval or consent of MacDow shall relieve the Supplier of any liability arising out of or in any way connected with the performance of its obligations under the Agreement.
- 31.2 Except as provided at law or in equity or elsewhere in the Agreement, none of the terms of the Agreement shall be varied, waived, discharged or released except with the written consent of the parties, which shall not be continuing unless expressed to do so and further shall not constitute a waiver, discharge or release of any other term

32 Lien

- 32.1 The Supplier hereby waives any and all rights of lien against any of the Goods or any work of which the Goods form part or the Site (or part thereof) to the fullest extent consistent with the law. In the event an employee of the Supplier, or a

Sub-supplier or a worker employed by them, institutes action to place a lien on the Site (or part thereof), the Supplier will take whatever action is necessary to avoid the lien being registered or to have the lien removed forthwith (as the case may be), and shall indemnify MacDow against costs, losses or damages whatsoever, that MacDow may suffer as a result of the registration or proposed registration, of such lien.

33 Waiver

33.1 A failure by MacDow to enforce or exercise any rights conferred upon it under the Agreement or at law shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any such rights (unless made in writing by MacDow) or operate so as to bar the exercise or enforcement thereof at any subsequent time or times. No waiver in respect of any breach of the Supplier shall operate as a waiver in respect of any subsequent breach.

34 Cumulative rights

34.1 The rights and remedies hereby conferred shall be cumulative and in addition to any and all other rights and remedies now or hereafter existing at law or in equity.

35 Survival of terms

35.1 The termination or cessation otherwise of the Agreement howsoever caused shall be without prejudice to any obligations or rights of either party which have accrued prior to such termination or cessation and shall not affect any provision of the Agreement which is expressly or by implication provided to come into effect on or to continue in effect after such termination or cessation.

36 Property Furnished by MacDow

36.1 Without prejudice to Clause 23.4, any tools, tooling, drawings, plans, papers, documents, tape, diskettes, materials and other property furnished by MacDow for use by the Supplier shall be identified and shall remain the property of MacDow and shall be used by the Supplier only for the purpose of the performance of the Agreement. The Supplier shall ensure that any such property is clearly marked and identified as MacDow's property, and kept separate from other property of the Supplier or any third party and properly stored and protected.

36.2 All property aforesaid shall be delivered to MacDow forthwith upon MacDow's request to a destination specified by MacDow, in their original condition except for normal wear and tear.

37 Independent Contractor

37.1 For the purposes of the Agreement, the Supplier is an independent contractor and not an agent or employee of MacDow.

38 Governing Law

38.1 The Agreement shall be governed by and construed in all respects in accordance with the laws (and be subject to the courts) of the place where the Delivery Point is situated, and where that place is not in Australia, Victoria.

39 Dispute Resolution

39.1 Disputes

In the event that any dispute, controversy or difference of any kind whatsoever arising out of or in connection with the Agreement (including the validity or enforceability of the Agreement or any part thereof) or the carrying out of the Agreement, shall arise, either Party may notify the other in writing that a dispute has arisen and giving full details of the dispute.

39.2 Resolution by Senior Executives

Within 14 days of the date of notification of a dispute, Senior Executives of MacDow and the Supplier shall confer in good faith and attempt to settle the dispute amicably or agree a method for settlement.

39.3 Arbitration

If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute by negotiation or agree a method of settlement, within 30 days of notification of the dispute, the dispute may be referred by either party to arbitration by a single arbitrator to be appointed by agreement or (failing agreement within 14 days after receipt of notification by one party to the other of the intended reference) by a single arbitrator to be appointed on the written request of either party by the President of the chapter of the Australian Institute of Mediation and Arbitration in the place of the governing law, but only where the matter being referred in MacDow's opinion does not give rise to a claim by MacDow against the Client under MacDow's contract with the Client, in which case Clause 39.7 will apply.

39.4 Conduct of Arbitration

The place of arbitration shall be the capital city of the place of the governing law. Unless otherwise agreed, the arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with, and subject to The Institute of Arbitrators and Mediators Australia, 'Rules for Conducting Expedited Arbitration'. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon MacDow and the Supplier.

The parties expressly and irrevocably agree, that any statutory proportionate liability regimes that may otherwise apply, are, to the maximum extent permitted, hereby excluded from operation in respect to any dispute, claim, action or matter whatsoever arising in connection with the Agreement.

39.5 Continued Performance

Notwithstanding the existence of a claim or dispute, the parties must continue to perform their respective obligations under this Agreement.

39.6 Language

All documents, correspondence, drawings and data relating to the Agreement or any dispute are to be in the English language.

39.7 Dispute affecting Client

Where in MacDow's opinion, the matter being referred to in Clause 39.1 gives rise to a claim by MacDow against the Client under its contract with the Client and MacDow intends to pursue that claim through arbitration or other formal dispute resolution protocol under that contract, MacDow shall upon the expiry of the 30 days indicated in Clause 39.3

STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF PURCHASE ORDER

give notice to the Supplier informing the Supplier of its intention to pursue the matter under the contract with the Client in which case the following shall apply.

- b) MacDow shall prosecute its claim or dispute with due diligence.
- c) The Supplier shall be bound by the findings of fact and by the decision or decisions made in respect of MacDow's claim or dispute to the extent that the same involves any issue or issues which are the same or substantially the same as issues which are relevant to the Supplier's claim, and the Supplier's claim shall be determined in a manner consistent with all such findings and decisions.
- d) The Supplier shall indemnify MacDow to the extent of the Supplier's interest in respect of the claim or dispute, against all costs and expenses incurred by MacDow by reason of the operation of this Clause.
- e) The Supplier shall lodge with MacDow reasonable cash or other security against such costs and expenses MacDow may reasonably incur, and any monies MacDow may recover shall be to the benefit of the Supplier to the extent of the Supplier's interest in the claim or dispute, save that MacDow shall be entitled to withhold from any such moneys, an amount representing MacDow's unrecovered costs of conducting the claim, in the proportion that the Supplier's entitlement bears to the total award.

40 Code Compliance

The National Code of Practice for the Construction Industry and the Australian Government Industry Guidelines for the Code, apply to the Supplier in respect to its provision of the Goods and in the conduct of its business.

The Supplier will permit MacDow to undertake inspections and audit its books and will provide whatever other documents and information that MacDow may reasonably request, relating to Code compliance. The Supplier shall be deemed to have confirmed its continuing Code compliance with the submission of any invoice or other claim for payment.
